

I totally support the no call list and the strict stance Wisconsin has taken on it. I do NOT want calls that interrupt my meals and take me away from a nap, watching TV, working around the house, or chatting with friends. They are a nuisance! I do not buy from them and only find frustration and annoyance when they do call. This no call list has significantly stopped all these pests. Leave it intact